JAMES F. REVILLE

Scholarship for Full Time College Students in a Program
Related to the Field of Intellectual or Other Developmental Disabilities

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Monday, January 13, 2020

About the Scholarship: The scholarship, in the amount of $3,000 per recipient, is paid in installments of $1,500.00 per semester for any year the student is enrolled in college. The scholarship is presented to an individual who intends to pursue a career related to the field of intellectual or other developmental disabilities such as behavioral sciences, social work, nursing, healthcare administration and management or psychology. The funds must be claimed within a four (4) year period from the time the scholarship was awarded. Two (2) scholarships are presented annually.

About James F. Reville: This scholarship honors James F. Reville, in recognition of his dedication to bettering the lives of people with intellectual and other developmental disabilities. Mr. Reville was one of The Arc New York's most respected Presidents, serving the Association from 1965 to 1969. He served as President of the Welfare League Chapter, The Arc New York, from 1963 to 1964, was a member of the Association's Board of Directors for many years, and served as the Chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the national association, The Arc. In 1970, NYS Governor Nelson Rockefeller appointed Mr. Reville to the Advisory Council on Mental Retardation Facilities and to the Developmental Disabilities Council.
